

3.C.7.

Mandatory Certification

All residents are required to have mandatory certification in HIPAA, conscious sedation, and restraints prior to the start of training. At the time of Orientation, residents will get blood-borne pathogens training, secured inpatient training, and training in fatigue and sleep deprivation recognition.

The Office of Graduate Medical Education will track mandatory certifications completed by residents in each program.

Reviewed 4/08

Updated 5/08